Radio Site Monitoring - Example Tower Light Monitoring Interface Additional Monitoring & Control Communication between remote TASC points can be added such as Monitoring Devices and siteVIEW Enterprise Intrusion Alarms and Door Server can be accomplished using any of Strikes the following communication mediums: Depending on console level Radio integration a custom leased Telephone line test sequence can be Cellular developped Radio & Kenwood Fleetsync 4 Wire Leased Line Tower Light RS232 Serial TASC siteVIEW Enterprise Ethernet Monitoring Client WAN/LAN TASC siteVIEW Enterprise Server TASC Site Monitoring Device The TASC Site Monitoring device provides analog & digital inputs for monitoring equipment as well as outputs for activating TASC ALM500 or BPS various control points at your site. Using the TASC ALM500 we are able to monitor Antenna Line conditions such as VSWR The siteVIEW Enterprise Monitoring client resides on an operators desktop. It accesses the siteVIEW Enterprise Server using an existing customer WAN or LAN. Radio / Repeater The Monitoring client provides a user friendly interface for monitoring and Using the analog inputs of the TASC alarming. Gauges, dials and buttons can be Monitoring device we're able to monitor TASC siteVIEW Enterprise placed on screen to provide a graphical various points on interest on your radio and Monitoring Client representation of an actual site power support systems. RSSI, Battery Voltages & Charging current can all be monitored with alarms configured to alert staff when improper conditions are Battery Bank reached 9415 - 202nd Street, Langley, BC PH:(604) 888-9711

Inverter and Charging System

Title: Radio Site Monitoring - Example

Doc No: Radio Site Monitoring - Example.vsd

Date: 04/12/2008

By: James Allan